

Sinister shore

muziek: Harmen Nuesink; tekst: Marco van den Bovenkamp (©1987)

couplet I

Over the sea, far away,
lies a land where no one dares to go.
Darkness rules, night and day,
no one ever saw the light.
The legends tell that the Demons of Stone,
practise magic to control the land.

refrein

We've got to find the answer that lies inside,
to free this land from the evil spell.
No one knows their way of living,
we've got to fight them, got to break their spell.

couplet II

Over the sea, ships were sent.
Black clouds rising as they went.
After six weeks they saw the shore,
rising up from out of the sea.
Trembling with fear, they entered the silence.
Suddenly aggressors appear.
Screams were heard in the distance.
No one returned, the secret stays unknown.

couplet III

Over the sea, far away,
lies a land where no one dares to go.
Darkness rules, night and day,
no one ever saw the light.
The legends tell that the Demons of Stone,
practise magic to control the land.

refrein

We've got to find the answer that lies inside,
to free this land from the evil spell.
No one knows their way of living,
we've got to fight them, got to break their spell.

couplet IV

Over the sea, ships were sent.
Black clouds rising as they went.
After six weeks they saw the shore,
rising up from out of the sea.
Trembling with fear, they entered the silence.
Suddenly aggressors appear.
Screams were heard in the distance.
No one returned, the secret stays unknown.

= solo =